

Case Manager

Selection Criteria

To be successful in this position it is critical that you demonstrate sound ability, skills and knowledge in the following areas:

1. Proven experience in achieving behavioural change with individuals and cultures;
2. Demonstrated experience managing and maintaining effective work relationships with internal and external agencies;
3. Ability to develop rapport with all levels and ages within a small community with ability to inspire confidence and commitment in others;
4. Highly organised, demonstrated ability to identify and achieve work objectives with ability to adapt to changing priorities;
5. Proficient written communication skills.