The U.S. Consul General, Judith Fergin, visited Far North Queensland last week with Ms. Sharon Bonython Erickson, a local Indigenous woman who is Queensland's first candidate for the Fulbright scholarship.

Cape York Partnerships organised a full briefing for the visitors including time with CYP management in Cairns and a visit to Mossman Gorge to see our projects in action. The group visited Mossman State School to see a MULTILIT tutorial, met with the Attendance Case Manager and observed FIM employees working with clients. The Consul General shared her experiences with reform work in the USA.

The Mossman Gorge team worked together to present their projects impressing Ms Fergin with their passion and dedication.
